

CHART OF THE RESEARCHER CENTRO DE ESTUDOS AFRICANOS DA UNIVERSIDADE DO PORTO (C.E.A.U.P.)

I – RESEARCHER

1. ADMISSION

It is considered a Researcher of the Centro de Estudos Africanos da Universidade do Porto (CEAUP) whoever is admitted in that quality by the CEAUP's Scientific Board.

1.1.. The admission of the researcher is made as a proposal of one researcher accompanied by the researcher's CV and research Project.

1.2. The CEAUP's Scientific Board can invite researchers whose integration is considered of interest to the prosecution of the CEAUP's objectives.

2. Activities

The researcher will work on areas of knowledge with reference to or application in Africa.

3 Duties

The researcher commits to:

a) present, in the beginning of each year, the indicators of the results obtained in the previous year and the plan for the following year.

b) present, in a work session, once a year, the final or partial conclusions, definitive or draft, of his/hers ongoing research.

c) make available to the community of researchers of the CEAUP, in an appropriated way, the data basis resulting of his/hers research financed by the CEAUP.

e) participate, when possible, with or without paper, in the scientific events promoted by the Centre.

d) mention in his/hers publications his/hers affiliation with the Centre.

c) collaborate, when asked and as far as possible, in the Centre's publications, mainly in the Journal Africana Studia.

f) present assertions, in his/hers expertise area, on the scientific quality of works proposed for publication by the Centre or under the Centre's responsibility.

g) inform the Centre, through the news published in the Web page, of events or of scientific participations judged relevant for the CEAUP.

II - CEAUP'S FINANCIAL SUPPORT TO THE RESEARCHER

1. The CEAUP commits, within the limits of its budget, to:

a) financially support, in Portugal, the missions which are duly programmed by the approved research projects.

b) subsidise, partially or fully, at least one annual mission outside Portugal, either for research activities or for the participation in a scientific meeting considered of high interest to the CEAUP

c) promote the divulgation of the results of the research through:

- electronic Works in the CEAUP's Web page, either as working papers or as electronic books.

- the publication of Africana Studia – International Journal of African Studies

- the edition of subsidised books, within the limits of the ongoing editorial projects.